

Complaints Handling Procedure

If you have a complaint, in the first instance it may be helpful to contact the person who is working on your case to discuss your concerns.

If you would like to make a formal complaint, please contact our Practice Manager, Charlotte Surridge, via the following email address charlotte@blears.com. We have eight weeks to consider your complaint. If we have not resolved it within this time you may complain to the Legal Ombudsman.

What will happen next?

1. We will send you a letter acknowledging receipt of your complaint within three days of receiving it, enclosing a copy of this procedure.
2. We will then investigate your complaint. This will normally involve passing your complaint to our client care partner, Charlotte Surridge, who will review your matter file and speak to the member of staff who acted for you.
3. Charlotte will then invite you to a meeting to discuss and hopefully resolve your complaint. She will do this within 14 days of sending you the acknowledgement letter.
4. Within three days of the meeting, Charlotte will write to you to confirm what took place and any solutions she has agreed with you.
5. If you do not want a meeting or it is not possible, Charlotte will send you a detailed written reply to your complaint, including her suggestions for resolving the matter, within 21 days of sending you the acknowledgement letter.
6. At this stage, if you are still not satisfied, you should contact us again and we will arrange for another partner to review the decision.
7. We will write to you within 14 days of receiving your request for a review, confirming our final position on your complaint and explaining our reasons.
8. If you are still not satisfied, you can then contact the Legal Ombudsman on the details below;
